

Friends of Historic Second Church

2010 Evening Lecture Series

Money Was No Object: The Tiffany Mosaic of Chicago's Marquette Building

No expense was spared to make the Marquette Building rotunda the most impressive lobby in Chicago. This lecture explores the key players and events behind the 1895 Tiffany mosaic, which tells the story of the 17th-century French missionary explorer, Father Marquette.

Art Historian and free-lance writer, Ruth D. Nelson, whose forthcoming book will examine Marquette, will present the first lecture of the Friends of Historic Second Church's 2010 Evening Lectures Series.

Date: Thursday, February 25, 2010
Time: 6:00 PM reception / 7:00 PM lecture
Place: Second Presbyterian Church
1936 S. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60616
Cost: $5
Questions: historic2ndchurch@yahoo.com or 1-800-657-0687

The 2010 Evening Lecture Series has been generously funded by the Terra Foundation for American Art.

TERRA
FOUNDATION FOR AMERICAN ART